

Key events in the life of Bahá'u'lláh

Vocabulary

If you feel the children are unfamiliar with these words, take some time to explain them before showing the video for this lesson.

Radical: Something new and different.

Exiled: When a person is forced to leave their home and never allowed to return.

Democracy: When people get the opportunity to vote to decide who their leaders are.

